Seniors housing would be boost for the community

By Frank Ryan
A 'major' senior citizens residential development is being considered in Drayton Valley.

Horizon Village has made an offer to the town to purchase between 15 and 25 lots.

The original offer expired last Thursday, but The Western Review has learned the town has sent a letter to Horizon Village asking for an extension.

Horizon Village, whose projects are for seniors over 50, has been looking at Drayton Valley for the past year according to Rod Schults of Phillips Realty.

Joe Fras, speaking from his Horizon Village office in Edmonton said he was in Drayton Valley last August, looking at several possible sites.

Schults reports that his client is interested in the undeveloped area east of the Northview subdivision.

Horizon Village wants to build between 15 and 25 single family two bedroom bungalow units in Drayton Valley. "It would be a nice boost to the community," Fras stated.

"I hope we can come to a suitable arrangement," Fras said about talks with the town.

Up until now, Horizon Village has limited their developments to Edmonton and Calgary, but Fras said they are interested in testing the market in small urban centres.

Abuse claims

Officials up in arms

By Steve Fletcher

Allegations of mistreatment appearing last week in an Edmonton newspaper have officials with the Drayton Valley Association for the Developmentally Handicapped up-in-arms.

In a column by Eddie Keen in the March 12 issue of the Edmonton Sun, former employees Delia Duperron and Bertha Couture allege that mentally-handicapped adults at the Beehive Workshop were physically abused.

They also say that complaints about mistreatment were ignored, and that both lost their jobs after informing parents of the abuse.

An investigation into the claims is currently being undertaken by the association's board and by staff members and will probably be completed by the end of the month, says Garry Lorenz, president of the association.

Although he did not believe there were incidents of physical abuse at the workshop, he said he was "definitely going to get to the bottom of it."

The claims may have been the act of "disgruntled employees," Lorenz added.

Tom Furrer, chairman of the association's personnel committee, said he doesn't "comment on unsubstantiated allegations."

The Beehive's new director, Andy Dornan, also refused comment except to say the newspaper column "was dealing with nothing but assumptions and hearsay, and without the true facts being known."

Neither Couture nor Duperron could be reached for comment.

H.W. Pickup junior high

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies open school

By Steve Fletcher
H.W. Pickup Junior High School celebrated its long-awaited modernization last week with an official opening that included speeches, a ribbon-cutting ceremony, and a tour of the expanded facility.

The $1.52 million project, designed by the Edmonton architectural firm of Wood and Gardner (Jack Gardiner was on hand for the opening), took a total of five months to complete.

The entire modernization, a necessity according to principal Colin Cavanagh, includes a new industrial education complex, and the restructuring of the school's north wing and office area.

The industrial education building includes a five-station computer lab, the implementation of an exhaust system and a major replacement of equipment in the materials lab, and four darkrooms with the capability to perform black and white, color, and processed camera production.

Four classrooms and the office area were also modernized and a new science lab was put into place.

Orange arches at the front entrance of the school are also a part of school's new and improved look.

The road to the physical rejuvenation of the school — completed in August, 1986 — began in earnest approximately a decade ago, although plans only "got really seriously" going in 1984, Cavanagh said. The school was built in 1960, and had begun to show signs of its age.

Superintendent of Schools Marvin Thachuk, Parkland County Board of Education Chairman Vi Helm, and Len Grant of Albert Education were among those who addressed those present for the official opening.

New MD Open houses set

Talks continue next week on the proposed municipal district.

Municipal affairs has scheduled 11 'open houses' starting Monday, March 23 from 1 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. upstairs in the Breton Community Centre.

A complete list of the open house information sessions is listed on page 24 in a municipal affairs ad. The ad also contains a description of the proposed boundaries.

The purpose of these open houses will be to provide information on the incorporation proposals and those individuals in attendance will be requested to complete an opinion questionnaire. These are not public meetings or debating sessions.

The minister of municipal affairs will be recommending to the Lt. Governor in Council that a new municipal district be established and incorporated effective Jan. 1, 1989. The matter of the final boundaries will be settled through a public consultation process.

Post office closures?

Post office service at Winfield, Breton and Aliske could be affected when local postmasters retire.

A reduction in services or a closure may occur as a result of a scheme by Federal Minister Harvie Andre. In rural communities where a postmaster is due to retire, it's possible the vacant position will not be filled or the service will be contracted to private enterprise.

The postmaster at Winfield is scheduled to retire this year with Irene McManh of Aliske scheduled to retire in '88 followed by Breton's Maude Purdy in '89.

Winfield is also opening a 'new' post office at the end of this month.

Vic Taylor, general manager for the foothills division of Canada Post said it's difficult to predict what will occur when the postmasters retire. Commenting on the situation in Aliske and Breton, Taylor said, "All I can say is at this point in time we have no plans to replace them but things could change."

Taylor indicated postal services at Aliske and Breton would be reviewed when postmaster retirement dates came up. "It really has to be taken on a case-by-case study and depends on the conditions that exist at that time," he added.

Driver is charged with negligence

A 38-year-old woman was killed last Tuesday night as a result of a two-vehicle collision about 7:30 p.m. nine kilometres south of Breton on Highway 12.

Joan Flanders of Winfield was the lone occupant of her car at the time of the collision. She died as a result of injuries sustained in the crash.

After an investigation by Breton RCMP 72-year-old Edward Green of Westeros has been charged with negligence causing death. Green is scheduled to appear in Breton provincial court on Wednesday, March 25 at 10 a.m.

Joins staff

Steve Fletcher has joined The Western Review's editorial staff. The native of Kamloops, B.C. comes to Drayton Valley from Edson, where he worked for the past 15 months. He majored in political science at the University of British Columbia.

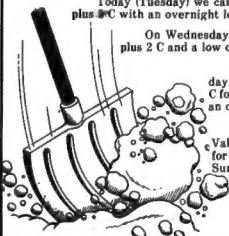

There's good news in the forecast for local skiers. Scattered flurries are expected both Thursday and Friday.

Today (Tuesday) we can expect a high of plus 2°C with an overnight low of -10 C.

On Wednesday, look for a high of plus 2 C and a low of -8 C.

And then on Friday, it will be around 6 C for a high and -9 C for an overnight low.

The Drayton Valley ski hill opened for the first time last Sunday.

A county plumber was injured after a chemical cleaner caused an explosion in this drain.

Freak accident

Plumber injured

A County of Parkland plumber sustained facial burns last Friday morning when a sewage drain he was trying to unclog in the H.W. Pickup school industrial arts room exploded.

Ron Odenbach, 42, of Stony Plain said the explosion occurred after he poured an industrial chemical called Blue Blast into the floor drain.

The drain spewed a shower, containing caustic soda and lye up to the ceiling.

Fortunately, Odenbach said, he wasn't looking directly into the drain although he did get some acid in his eyes.

He was taken to the University of Alberta Hospital to have his eyes examined and is now recovering at home.

The cause of the explosion in the sewage system is still undetermined. A problem was first noticed after running water in the darkroom came up through the floor drain in the mechanical room.

Ski hill now open

The Drayton Valley ski hill will be open tonight (Tuesday) from 7 to 10 p.m.

The downhill opened last Sunday for the first time this season and was open again Monday night.

President Al Dumke says the club is looking in to purchasing some snow-making equipment.

Opinions

Four new restaurants

Newcomers show faith in community...

There could be a story in last month's building permits.

If you want to compare the $247,000 in permits to last year's $603,000 of '86, you'd likely come to the conclusion that Drayton Valley was feeling the effects of the economy, just like other Albertans.

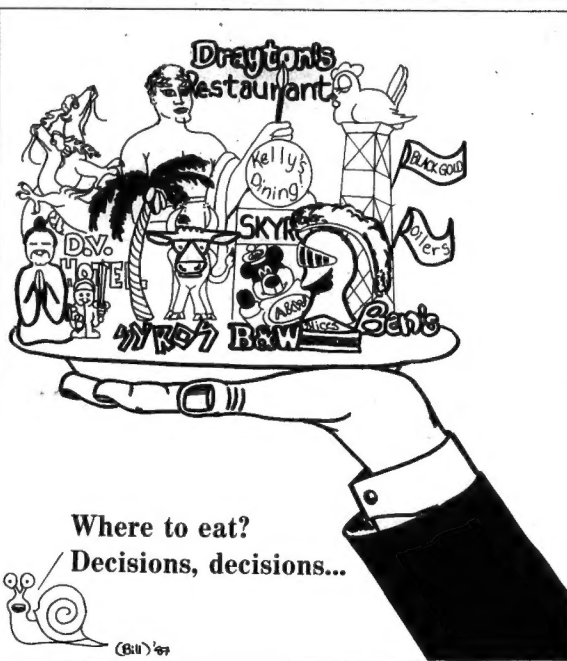

But, if that's the way you feel, don't tell anyone in the food business.

Four new restaurants have opened in town during the past year. If you're counting, we have 19 full service restaurants in Drayton Valley.

What's amazing about all this is, the faith the newcomers have shown in the community, while the others have kept their doors open, despite more competition.

If you were ever wondering how so many restaurants could make a living, just try and find a seat in any one of them at noon.

Where to eat?

Decisions, decisions...

Education Week

A good response from the parents

Education is an important aspect of community life.

That was never more evident than during Education Week.

And what was so gratifying about it all, was the excellent response from the parents.

The hallways and classrooms at our schools were filled with parents during open house. In one room, the parents took their place at their child's desk, and did a half-hour of arithmetic. Those who didn't finish the assignment were given homework.

Career days at St. Anthony's and Frank Maddock received overwhelming praise from the guest instructors. That's a credit to the students, who showed enough interest in their futures to attend the sessions.

Education is something a lot of people take for granted. But proof of just what the kids are learning, was never more evident than during Education Week in Drayton Valley.

Mandatory July 1

Seat belts should be installed in the public buses

The provincial government has set July 1 as the date all Albertans must buckle up. After months of hearing why we should wear seat belts, we can expect to hear from the other side now.

Personally, I favor the wearing of seat belts, especially for children.

The one problem I have however, is public transportation, such as buses. More specifically, buses that carry sports teams and seniors.

If the general public is going to be forced

Frankly Speaking

by Frank Ryan

to 'buckle up', it seems like good sense to have seat belts installed in the buses.

Despite a $74,000 deficit at the Park Valley indoor swimming pool and a similar deficit at the Centennial Civic Arena, the town has decided not to increase fees at these two facilities.

Did You Know? - The town is still paying off the Centennial Civic Arena and they were still paying for the old outdoor swimming pool when it was filled in?

Area blood donors are congratulated

Dear Editor,

As a volunteer I know it is often difficult to get new people involved and committed to many worthwhile organizations and community efforts.

As convener for the blood donor clinic in Drayton Valley, this was not the case on Wednesday, Feb. 15.

Letters

Thanks to the efforts of so many people who helped promote the clinic and those volunteer supporters who donated blood, especially the 28 first-time donors, the clinic was a huge success with 280 donors from Drayton Valley, Evansburg, Buck Lake, Alder Flats, Winfield, Tomahawk and surrounding areas giving support to a worthy cause.

Three people, Wm. R. Morton, John R. Scriver and Dennis R. Bordula, received certificates from Red Cross

for their generosity in voluntarily giving 35 donations of blood. Red Cross appreciates any donation and I sincerely hope that Drayton Valley and surrounding communities will continue in this support.

If you are between 17 and 66 years of age, and in good health, your blood donation will be welcomed at the next clinic in Drayton Valley June 3, so mark your calendars now.

So on behalf of Red Cross a "huge bouquet" to "volunteers" who made this clinic the most successful in more than 10 years.

Sincerely,
Hy Dahl, convener

Canvassers needed

April is Cancer Month

With April being Cancer Month, canvassers will soon be in high demand throughout the area.

Kathy Palmer, canvassing co-ordinator, says this year's canvassing drive will be different from past years.

Canvassers in the past had to cover large areas. This time, however, all volunteers will simply be handed a receipt book with 20 receipts.

It should take about 1½ hours, Palmer said.

"If they wish to do more we'll certainly give them another book...but that's all we're asking."

She said Daffodil Days and the annual Cancer Trail Ride are also in the works.

Last year about $5,000 was raised in the Drayton Valley area.

Don't blame me, writer says

Dear Editor,

Attention cat owners! If your cat is missing or comes home with bullet hole in it, please don't blame me.

I realize you could be a little suspicious of me but let's first look at the facts.

The last time you saw "Lucky" he was on his way over to your neighbor's flowerbed for his early morning constitutional. This is quite normal. In fact "Lucky" does this every day.

Perhaps the owner of that dead flowerbed is the guilty one. Maybe he doesn't like "Lucky" or maybe it's finding what "Lucky" is leaving behind.

At any rate it might be good to invest in a litterbox to catch whatever "Lucky" drops before someone drops "Lucky."

Yours truly,
"ALF"

DV service expands

Ambulance is now based in Entwistle

The expansion of the Drayton Valley Ambulance Service to Entwistle will cut down substantially the response time for improvement District No. 14 residents in the area.

Since March 1, one of the five Drayton Valley ambulances has been stationed at the Entwistle Firehall.

Three Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs) will be on call at the new base.

EMTs Dwayne Austen and Kelly Nuyens say the new service will cut ambulance response time by at least half. They said the Entwistle ambulance could probably respond to an emergency in the area in roughly five-to-10 minutes.

Formerly, about 30 minutes was required before a Drayton Valley ambulance could get to the Entwistle area.

The ambulance service now has five EMTs in Drayton Valley and three in Entwistle. Part-time staff include two registered nurses and an additional EMT.

Council News

Council gave their unanimous support to discharging the mortgage against the existing club, clearing the way for the sale of the land to the provincial government. Records showed the mortgage was originally $3,500 which was to be paid back in $500 installments. Council was informed last week the amount was never paid.

The town is still waiting for a response from Alberta Transportation on their request for traffic lights at the junction of Highway 22 and 34th Avenue (into Sturd Wood).

To buy or rent?

Is it better to buy or rent a home? This is the perennial real estate question.

Deciding to buy rather than rent means you start out paying a premium of 15 to 20 per cent for the privilege. On the surface, it may then appear better to rent. But in the long run the choice may well turn out to be the opposite. Rent payments are expenses that increase each year and leave you with nothing to show. On the other hand, ownership costs increase more slowly, on an annual basis.

Make a comparison

However, to make an accurate comparison, renters should invest the difference in what they would have to pay to own a house each month. But few can manage to save the extra money. And fewer still are drawn enough to invest the difference at returns above inflation. None ownership thus becomes a forced saving.

But the real gain from owning a home lies in the appreciation of the residential property. As every smart real estate person has proclaimed, "Owning a residential property turned out to be the best investment anyone could have made over the past 10 or 15 years."

What about the future? Will houses continue to appreciate in value? I'll look at this issue in my next column.

Andy Dornan joins the Beehive staff.

New Beehive director sees real potential

By Steve Fletcher

The new director of the Beehive Workshop sees real potential for the facility in the future.

Andy Dornan, who arrived in Drayton Valley from the Okanagan recently, says the workshop is a great organization that could grow into "a first-class, professional organization."

He said his chief responsibility will be to oversee the administrative and financial end of the workshop. Dornan has 15 years experience in administration.

The current thrust of the workshop is to improve community awareness about the service it provides to the mentally and physically handicapped.

Dornan added that the organization would also like to strengthen the vocational aspect of its work. Presently, several Beehive students have "graduated from the system" and are now employed in a variety of businesses, including supermarkets, car washes, and oil rig servicing. One individual, a participant in the independent living program, operates his own snow-removal company.

As for the impact of government budget cuts, Dornan said he is reviewing the workshop's finances and it may be required to tighten belts. "There will be some reductions in government grants, but nothing we can't handle. We receive good support from the community."

Group gives approval to child abuse course

By Steve Fletcher

The Eldorado School Parents' Association gave 100 per cent approval last week to a proposal calling for the implementation of a child abuse awareness course into the school's curriculum.

The course, called CARE (an acronym for Child Abuse Research and Education Kit), and endorsed by Eldorado principal Howard Pearson, must receive the support of the Parkland County Board of Education before it can be taught at the school.

"It was probably the best parent response we've had," Pearson said of the association's meeting, which saw about 60 parents in attendance. "I think we (the teaching staff) felt compelled now to do something."

If the school receives approval from the board of education, which has already approved CARE Kit programs at other schools, a pilot program in Grade 3 classes would most likely be organized for this year, he said.

Pearson added that written permission from each parent must be obtained before a student would be allowed to sit in on the course.

Caroline Schoepf, a guidance counsellor who has been trained to teach the course, said the CARE Kit was initiated in Surrey, B.C. following a rash of child abuse and cases of sexual abuse.

"There were a lot of problems (in Surrey), and a lot of it had to do with Clifford Olsen," Schoepf added.

The CARE program is not aligned in any way with sex education," she stressed. Rather, the course is preventative in nature, with an emphasis on teaching personal safety to children at the primary school age level.

Teachers must obtain special training before they are permitted to instruct students in the classroom, Schoepf said.

Eldorado Parents' Association President Brenda Samis said she has some "mixed feelings" about recommending implementation of the CARE Kit, but added that sexual abuse statistics make it "impossible to neglect the problem."

The CARE Kit program is currently in use throughout B.C., Washington State, and, more recently, in Edmonton and surrounding areas.

Liquor is bad!

By Andrea Barrett & Lindsay Passy
Grade 4 students, Elementary B

Most people say liquor is bad for us today! Most accidents happen because of drunk driving on the way! Most people out of business because of the liquor strike! But don't think this will stop by going places on a bike. People turning against liquor because of best friends dying. So you better start denying... Liquor is bad for you. Oh ya, liquor is bad for you! This is true, because if you go driving with someone that is drunk. You'll either be hurt or in one of the heaven bunks!

Editor's Note: The students wrote this during an Education Week debate. The subject was "Should the sale of liquor be abolished?"

Science fair is successful

By Stacey Orlesky
Another success. The Tomahawk science fair went off without a hitch. The fair was held March 12. Projects ranged from "Which Suds Lasted the Longest" to "Diaper Wars". Grades 3 to 9 participated in the fair.

The winners of the fair were for Grade 3 and 4, Dana Lanoureaux and Andrea Schadeck for their project of "What is Acid Rain to Human Beings" and tied with them for first was Megan Braitenbach and Cindy Fell with their project of "Dissolving Candy".

The first place winners for the grade 5 and 6 students were Conrad Thielen and Jim Malka and their project was "How do Plants Produce Power?".

For the Grade 7s Chris Schepp and Tyson Utri won first place with their small town water supply demonstration.

Bonnie Kohut and Michelle Pinder took first place for the Grade 8s. Their project was "Subsurface Drainage".

The Grade 9 winners were Darcey Kohut and Rhett Losey with their project of photosynthesis.

The judges of the science fair were Madeline MacDonald, Wandy Androschuk, Stacey Orlesky, and Bill Lysak.

Standing-room-only crowd

By Frank Ryan
Local boxers took it on the 'chin' during an international card last Saturday night.

The host Derrick Boxing Club only managed four wins in 12 opportunities while visiting U.S. boxers from Spokane and Silver Valley, Idaho, won nine of 13 fights.

Wes Litke, one of the four Derrick Club boxers to earn a victory along with the best local fighter award, received the biggest ovation from the standing-room only crowd in St. Anthony's school gym.

Fighting in the 175-pound intermediate pound class, Litke knocked Spokane's Ted McCabe to the canvas at 1:24 of the third round. This came after the U.S. fighter had taken two standing eight counts.

Pierre Hodgkins, in 135-pound junior C, John Alexander in 75-pound non-competitive and Mike Hodgkins in 75-pound junior A were the other local winners.

The noisy crowd agreed with most of the decisions, except the last one, which saw local favorite Randy McQuig lose a split decision to Floyd Drainie of Silver Valley. A chorus of boos followed the decision.

The 18-bout card was split, with the U.S. contingent winning nine bouts and Canada, led by the Derrick Club, winning nine. The Cougar club of Edmonton won three bouts with fighters from Fort Saskatchewan and Slave Lake coming up winners.

The Cougars' Wayne Krouse who scored a split decision over Spokane's Brian Hilby in the 119-pound junior C class, was selected as the best out-of-town fighter.

The team award went to the U.S. squad.

Dan Swatkowski of the host club lost to Spokane's John Green in the opening 60-pound non-competitive bout. Pierre Hodgkins scored a split decision over Lloydminster's Shawn Simpson in 135-pound junior C. In a battle of Drayton Valley fighters in the 75-pound non-competitive class, Alexander was awarded a unanimous decision over Shawn Wilhite.

Mike Baker, the victim of two standing eight counts, lost to Chris Sloan of Spokane in 95-pound junior C. Ron Olsen lost a unanimous decision to Randy Williams of Spokane in 100-pound junior C. Bernard Burwash was declared the winner in the 90-pound junior A over Drayton Valley's Shawn Harden when the referee stopped the fight at the 55-second mark of the second round. Eric Flinders lost a split decision to Spokane's Shawn Conner in 75-pound junior A. Brent Mellick of Spokane won a split decision over the Derrick Club's Carl Schmidt in 75-pound junior A.

and Mike Hodgkins was awarded a split decision over Spokane's Mike Baker in the 75-pound junior A class.

Penalties are costly to Drayton Valley Devils

The Drayton Valley Devils have their backs to the wall.

The north division regular season champs trail the Barrhead Elks 2-2 in their best-of-seven final. The sixth game is set for tonight (Tuesday) in Barrhead with a seventh game, if necessary, in Drayton Valley on Wednesday night.

The Elks took a 3-2 lead in the series with a triple overtime 9-8 win Sunday afternoon on home ice.

Two games scheduled last Thursday and Friday were never played. The Elks cancelled their home ice date on Thursday and failed to show for the game in Drayton Valley on Friday, due to the death of one of their players, George Regimbald, 19, last Monday, near Hinton. However, the league awarded the Friday game to the Devils, briefly tying the series at 2-2.

Cosch Preston Yachimec says penalties got the Devils in trouble at Barrhead on Sunday.

Come-from-behind effort from Norette

Dale Warren thought it was all over. Doug Everett had the same feelings.

But the Norette bantams didn't let their coaching staff down as they managed an impressive 6-6 tie in Edson last Sunday night in the opening game of their two-game total-goal series. The second game was played last night (Monday) with the series' winner advancing to the provincials.

Norette found themselves trailing 4-0 after the first and 5-0 by the six-minute mark of the second before coming back with six unanswered goals. Edson got the tie, on a two-man power-play with eight minutes left.

Bryan Everett sparked the comeback with a pair of goals. Others came off the sticks of Mark Hansen, Brent Plotts, Jason Kipling and Trevor Fedorus.

"It was a great come-from-behind effort," Doug Everett said Monday morning. "I thought it was all done and done with." Warren added, after his team fell behind 5-0.

Roland Polafut's goal at the 32-second mark of overtime gave Norette a 3-3 tie with Barrhead last week, sending the local club into their series with Edson. Norette won the opening game 5-4 and the series 8-7.

Parkland travels to Leduc tomorrow (Wednesday) for the B final in the Wild Rose League. The second game goes here on Sunday, 3:45 p.m. at the arena. Parkland advanced to the final when Wetaskiwin forfeited their series due to a lack of players.

Parkland bowed out of the bantam C provincials when they lost 12-1 to Mayerthorpe. The second game was never played.

In pee wee action last week Jason Jehnki scored three goals as Flint edged Elks 6-5. Kent McKechnie had two goals for the Elks.

Novice tournament

It wasn't the Stanley Cup, but you couldn't tell it from the players' enthusiasm.

Ten teams participated in a two-day novice tournament at the Drayton Valley arena last Saturday and Sunday. All the teams played three games in round-robin action and then advanced to the finals.

The biggest game of the finals saw Calmar and J&A Trucking meet, after chalking up perfect 3-0 win/loss records in round-robin action. Benjie Hansen scored three goals as Calmar won the final 5-4. Paul Cookson had two for J&A with Leigh Melnychuk and Dade Getzinger getting singles.

Tim Huber scored three goals as Calmar opened with a 10-1 win over Wabamun. Hansen and Robert Dowler had two each in a 5-1 win over the Sunburst Flyers and Calmar's third win, a 7-3 win over the Stony Plain Flyers saw Dowler net three goals. J&A opened with a 4-2 win over Nelson with three more. Michael scoring two, Melnychuk and Getzinger had two each in a 4-3 win over the Stony Plain Flyers and they whipped Stony Plain Taylor 6-1 for their third win, with Melnychuk and Getzinger getting three each.

Other finals saw Nelson's down Warden Warriors 9-3, Sunburst whipped Evansburg 10-4, Wabamun shutout Spry Grove Firefighters 2-0 and the Stony Plain Flyers down Stony Plain Taylor 6-1.

Maciborsky big winner

The curtain came down on the Drayton Valley Curling Club bonspiel scene last Sunday.

Don Maciborsky only needed six ends to chalk up an 11-4 win over Dan Bartlett in the first event final.

Stan Kurylo scored one in the seventh and added two in the eighth for a 9-6 win over Floyd Gillard in the second event final.

And Arnold Olson's four-ome, playing their fourth game of the day, started off strong with a three-ender and hung on to defeat Kevin Archibald 5-4 to win the third event.

Maciborsky, joined by

Deanna and David Sluchinski and Teena Howarth scored three in the first, added four in the fourth and three more in the sixth when Bartlett decided to throw in the towel.

Kurylo and Gillard were all even, 6-6 after the sixth, but Kurylo went one up in the seventh and stole two in the eighth for the win. The foursome included Stan and Claudeite Kurylo, Linda and John Fiddler.

Olson didn't have to throw his last rock after Archibald made it close with a single in the seventh. The winning skip was joined by his wife Donna, Judy and Jack Forrest.

Registration open for spring learn-to-swim classes

By Charlene Jenkins
A special thank you is extended to all those who participated in our swim for Rick Hansen.

Money saving tips — food

While homemakers try to stretch the food dollar, Alberta Tourism has come up with some figures on how far the food will stretch.

According to statistics recently released by Tourism Minister LeRoy Fjordhøten, Alberta restaurant receipts in 1985 were estimated at $1,185,591. If an average hamburger cost $2, an average hot dog $1.50 and a 12-inch pizza cost $10, then 592,796,000 hamburgers or 790,394,000 hot dogs or 118,559,000 pizzas could have been purchased.

Hamburgers would cover 80,620,000 square feet, or 1,260 football fields. Hot dogs would cover 88,413,000 square feet or 600 football fields and pizzas would cover an area of 98,152,000 square feet or 1,450 football fields.

Our goal was to meet Rick Hansen in Wildwood by swimming a block on our map (20 lengths). There are 116 blocks in all, and I'm sure that after the final tally we will have swam most of the way to Eniwatse.

Register now for our spring learn-to-swim classes. April 1-May 6 (no class April 20): Mondays and Wednesdays, 4-4:30 p.m. Little dippers, paddlers, crusaders/voyagers, orange and red.

April 2-May 5: Tuesdays

April 14-May 14: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11:30-noon, water tots, paddlers.

Sports can be cruel. Especially when it comes to determining a winner and loser.

One of the best basketball games we've seen in a long time was played in the Rec Plex recently. It featured the Hinton Rockies and FMHS Warriors.

Coach Barry Swap's Warriors had never beaten the Rockies in three previous attempts. But after the opening half in their conference final, the Hinton club needed a basket just at the bell, for a 34-32 lead. The Warriors' effort not only impressed the crowd and coach Swap, but the Rockies' head man, Chris Gonnert.

"Drayton Valley came out and played super. They showed a lot of character," Gonnert commented following the match, that his team eventually won 79-68.

Two people who deserve a 'tip of the hat' for all the time they contributed to high school basketball for a second straight year are Lynette Tsai and Barry Swap.

Tsai, one of the outstanding female basketball players in Alberta, guided the FMHS Amazons this past year while Swap worked with the Warriors. The community is fortunate to have people like this, who are not teachers, but give up their own personal time to work with our youth.

When FMHS hand out their awards at the end of the season, they might consider recognizing these two coaches.

There's been a lot written about the lack of security at the Centennial Civic Centre.

But how many people would step in the middle of a potential office brawl? That was the scene after game two of the Devils/Burnhead Elks game.

The Elks had just dumped the Devils 5-2 for a surprising 2-0 lead in the series, when they faced an angry crowd en route to their dressing room. But, standing in between the players and the crowd, blocking the way to the dressing room, was Devils' president Morris Seiferling.

No one told Seiferling, when he decided to return to the hockey club this winter, that his duties included breaking up fights. But he's to be commended for his quick actions that otherwise may have led to an ugly incident.

Former local at Brier

Billie Rose, a former Drayton Valley resident, participated in the opening ceremonies at the brier in Edmonton.

Rose, the former Imperial Oil agent and a life member at the Drayton Valley Golf club, held the brooms during the opening ceremonies. Rose is a former brier winner.

The creek on the ninth hole at the Drayton Valley club was named Rose Creek in his honor.

Alberta Sport Council

Monies going to amateur sports

The Alberta Sport Council, a non-profit, Crown corporation whose mandate is to promote and fund amateur sport in the province, has announced it is providing $19,966 to seven amateur sport groups in the Zone 5

This money represents funding to applications from the 1986 fourth-quarter of the Local Sport Development Projects grant.

Zone 5 is bounded by Athabasca in the north, in the south by Ledue/Drayton Valley, the west by Jasper, and the east by Sherwood Park.

The funding will be used in a wide variety of innovative ways to assist in the sport development of local sport groups. Each of these groups went through an application and review process before funding was offered.

Alberta Gymnastics Federation, Zone 5, ($2,400) - to assist with the purchase of video equipment to be used as a training aid by gymnastics clubs in the Zone 5 area. Grande Cache Community high school ($4,000) - to assist with the purchase of training equipment to benefit students and residents involved in sport and help in the establishment of new clubs.

Devon Community Ski Association ($2,500) - to help establish a new luge program with the purchase of necessary equipment. Lac Ste Anne Sailing Association ($1,966) - to expand the club's ability to host major sailing competitions with the purchasing of inflatable marks.

Hinton Nordic Ski Club ($440) - to provide funds towards the purchase of timing equipment to be used at cross-country ski and biathlon races.

Niton Central school, wrestling and gymnastics clubs ($4,420) - to help establish new wrestling and gymnastics programs.

Tigers Baseball Association, St. Albert ($4,000) - to assist the association in its efforts to provide additional training opportunities for baseball players.

The Alberta Sport Council receives thousands of requests a year for financial assistance. Money for approved projects comes from the government of Alberta, Alberta lotteries and private enterprises.

For more information regarding the council's Local Sport Development Projects program, or any of this quarter's recipients, contact Charlene Seeman, zone coordinator at 863-9158.

Local kickboxers win awards

Drayton Valley kick boxers continue to pile up the awards.

Four competitors won bouts at a recent full-contact kick boxing card in Calgary, that drew some of the biggest names in the sport from Vancouver, Edmonton and Calgary.

Joel Syz won the 125-pound class while Shane Walper took the gold in the 160-pound division; Scott Thompson won in the 175-pound category and Dan Lyver was the winner in the heavyweight division. Syz, Thompson and Lyver all scored TKOs while Walper won on a split decision.

MS lecture to be given

The provincial coordinator for multiple sclerosis will speak at an informational meeting in Drayton Valley next month.

Shirley McFall will speak at the April 6 meeting, called for 7 p.m. at the provincial building. Everyone's welcome.

Dale Jones, the fifth Drayton Valley entrant, found himself over matched, so his match was stopped on a corner retirement.

Coach Al Walper was extremely pleased with his boxers' performance, considering they were up against some of the best in the business.

"Small town clubs such as Drayton Valley are not usually expected to do so well," Walper admitted.

The local club, now in its fourth year, will continue to work out twice weekly in preparation for the Western Canada championships scheduled for May in Red Deer.

Drayton Valley

Indoor golf facility being built

An indoor golf facility is under construction in Drayton Valley.

Lorne Webb is busy renovating a building at 5424-68 Avenue, formerly occupied by Valley Vacuum, for the new business.

The municipal planning commission (MPC) called a special meeting earlier this month to deal with a development permit application.

Webb told MPC about the electronic equipment that would be used and stated he would like to have an area for serving food and alcoholic beverages.

Councillor Alex Salfi raised a question about getting a liquor license from the ALCB and was told if the building meets certain standards, a permit would be issued.

A spokesman at the ALCB office in Edmonton told The Western Review the board had granted licenses for other indoor golf works.

MPC approved the development permit, and when the matter came before council last Thursday, they didn't raise any questions.

Any person claiming to be affected by MPC's decision has the right to appeal (in writing) prior to noon, March 18.

To join Alberta association

Drayton Valley Soccer Society expanding programs

The Drayton Valley Soccer Society is expanding their programs this year.

First of all, registrations will be taken from girls and for a non-competitive men's recreation league. And, the society also plans to join the Alberta Soccer Association (ASA).

Besides the new five-a-side girls' and men's league, the program for boys, ages five through 16, will continue.

A meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 22 at 7:30 p.m. in the Elks Hall upper committee room (use the side entrance).

Registrations will be taken for all leagues on March 26 and again on April 5 between 7 and 9 p.m. at the Scout Hall.

A discount for families with two or more children in the program will be available.

Organizer Simon Kelly feels the local soccer program may have lost some girls in past years because they felt uncomfortable competing with the boys. The girls five-a-side league is for interested players five years of age and up.

Companies are being invited to make up teams for the non-competitive men's league. Each team is required to have at least seven players.

Kelly says the biggest advantage of joining the provincial soccer association will be a better brand of competition for the local teams and clinics. Plans are already underway for a referee's school.

Besides working with the kids, Kelly plans to coach a high school soccer team this summer and play with Drayton Valley United, formerly Canars, in the senior men's league.

School a beehive

Open house at Lindale

By Mae Tryon
542-5791

The Lindale school has been like a beehive recently, a hub of activities.

March 2 to 6 was Education Week. Open house was held daily with parents welcome to all classrooms.

On March 2 the girls' volleyball team played their mothers and lady staff members. The girls outplayed the mothers, but everyone had an enjoyable time.

The following day, the fathers and male staff played the boys' basketball team. It was an exciting game with the fathers emerging the winners. Thursday night was an evening open house with displays in the gymnasium and individual classrooms. Congratulations to Mr. McColl and staff and students for a very interesting evening.

The Lindale School Association held its meeting

Berrymoor News

March 4 in the school library. Members were presented with a film and information on setting up a playground. It was decided to go ahead with this idea. June 16 will be the day it will be put together.

The Lindale slow-pitch tournament will be held July 17, 18 and 19. Anyone who would like to help is asked to call Mae Tryon at 542-5792.

Congratulations to Hector and Joan Gagne on the birth of their son Feb. 22. Proud grandparents are Herman and Gloria Berry.

The Lindale Hall Association will be holding a teen dance April 10 at the Lindale hall. Music will be provided by a dee jay with the top 40 hits.

The next meeting of the board will be March 26 at 730 p.m. at the home of Barbara Bowne.

The next meeting of the Berrymoor SE's will be March 24 at the home of Linda Van Emmer, starting at 1 p.m. The club will be holding a microwave demonstration April 14 at 1 p.m. at the Berrymoor Centre. Everyone welcome.

Boys, girls b-ball doing well at Lindale

By Mae Tryon
542-5792

The Lindale girls and boys basketball teams have been very busy lately.

The girls finished second in their league and the boys were tied for first place.

The boys will be hosting a tournament March 7.

The first week of March is Education Week. Mr. Mc Hartley. Coll has lots of things planned for this week. The public is invited to the school and see what is happening there.

Congratulations to Bill and Lynn Thompson on the birth of a son Jan. 19. The baby was born in Lethbridge and Lynn spent three weeks at her parents' place.

Welcome home to Donald and Isobel Martin who were on a 10-day trip to Boise, Idaho. While there they visited with his aunt, Alice.

The regular hall dance had fair attendance for their Valentine dance. The next dance will be March 14.

In the process, the eastern end of Whitecourt's Yellowhead Riding was trimmed off and given to the new St. Albert riding.

The new riding is shaped a little like Texas, and runs just east of Onoway, south along the Brazeau River to Mt. Columbia in Jasper National Park, west to the B.C.

The new boundaries will go into effect in the next federal election. They will not affect the location of Yellowhead MP Joe Clark's constituency office, located in Edmonton.

Evergreen school?

A new name has been suggested for the Elementary B school.

Principal Elson Keon told a County of Parkland education committee meeting last week that a selection committee was recommending 'Evergreen'.

The board, at least 13 of them, liked the name. The four that voted against the selection wanted to include elementary in the name.

Forty-three names were submitted in the name-the-school contest with Evergreen being mentioned twice. Two other suggestions were Southridge and Westridge.

The reasoning behind 'Evergreen' included Drayton Valley being in the Evergreen Zone; the evergreen tree is very popular throughout the area, it's known as a survivor, sturdy, stands tall and proud; the ever connotation of forever and ever growing and the county logo has evergreen.

"I've already got the tree picked out to transplant in front of the school," Trustee Maurice McCullagh said.

Trustee Henry Rondeau suggested the the word 'elementary' could be used in the phone book.

Board member Vi Helm of Drayton Valley endorsed the name — Evergreen school.

The new name still needs board of education approval.

Elementary B will remain as the name of the school until the end of the current year.

Features

The Western Review, Drayton Valley, Alta., Tuesday, March 17, 1987

Local freelance writer, Joanne Bengert, gets a nuzzle in the neck from one of Nubian and La Mancha dairy goats, dobermann, and toy poodles on their farm her "kids. In addition to her busy writing career, Bengert and her husband raise 12 miles north of Drayton Valley.

A humorous look at death

Farm girl/author to air story on CBC radio April 5

By Carolea Vesely
Local freelance writer Joanne Bengert, a once self-proclaimed child prodigy, devoted her teen years to writing because "it was the sort of thing a lonely farm girl did."

By age 20, she was a discontented school teacher who considered herself a brilliant, undiscovered writer.

Ten years later, she was completely frustrated and had enough rejection slips to wallpaper the bathroom.

Today, at 45, Bengert is a published writer with a unique from-the-heart style, who says she is probably the only person around who writes about death in a humorous way.

Bengert attributes the turn-around of her writing career to a $30 course offered in the Alberta Authors' Bulletin, and describes her discovery of it as "the miracle."

"Before, I was writing all the wrong stuff and for all the wrong markets," she said.

"I wrote to impress, using university-level vocabulary."

One of Bengert's short stories titled, 'Death and the Farmer' was recently chosen to be aired on CBC radio's Alberta Anthology on Saturday, April 5 at 8 a.m.

The show, jointly funded by CBC and Alberta Culture, features the work of a different Alberta writer, voiced by a professional reader, each week.

'Death and the Farmer' is actually the title of a series of short stories based on the same topic, which have already been sold, Bengert explained.

"My father was a farmer who died while working in the

"You write the stuff you know about"

fields," she said.

Not surprisingly, taking into account Bengert's attitude toward death, 'Death and the Farmer' is a happy, light-hearted story with humorous overtones.

This is the second time she has sold a short story to CBC.

Bengert's other credits include an honorable mention in the Canadian National Magazine Awards, articles in the 'Canadian Golden West' magazine (now defunct), 'The Farm Wife's Almanac' in Regina's 'Farm Light and Power', short stories in 'The Western Producer Report' and in 'Blue Buffalo' (a supernatural, 'but government trade magazine in Calgary), an article in 'Dogs in Canada' and two unpublished novels.

She has also appeared in 'Well Being', 'Herb Quarterly' and 'Harrowsmith', periodicals about edible herbs and related folklore.

Canadian writer W.O. Mitchell once said, "If you're going to write, use life's lumber."

Such is the philosophy at the root of Bengert's works.

"You write the stuff you know about," she said.

Although she has worn many different hats as humorist, satirist, rural and literary writer, her pieces share a common characteristic.

"They may have a bit of astrology, mystery or the supernatural," she said, "but they're always in a rural setting."

Despite her many accomplishments, Bengert said she still basically considers herself a failure. Her ultimate goal always was, and still is, to be a short story writer and novelist.

"When I die, I want people to say, 'She was the greatest novelist that ever lived.'"

Around the Province

Trade show off

Red Deer - The slumping economy has deflated plans for the all service show. Organizers called off the show due to a lack of exhibitors. And at Edson, the chamber has decided to drop their spring show because there wasn't enough time to organize it properly.

Staff get raise

Red Deer - City Hall non union staff have received a 3.5 per cent pay hike. Meanwhile, the city's 82 firefighters received an 11 per cent arbitration award over two years.

Facility shelved

Sylvan Lake - An application for a $3.8 million extended care facility for the community's senior citizens has been indefinitely shelved by the provincial government.

Smoke-free chambers

Spruce Grove - Smokers on city council will have to butt out at their next meeting as the council chambers have been declared smoke-free. The motion passed by a slim 4-3 margin.

Fireworks allowed

Red Deer - After a six-year cease-fire, fireworks are again available in the city and surrounding area. The sale of fireworks was outlawed in 1980 when fire chiefs and the fire commissioner's office won a ban after several injury accidents.

New Hovercraft factory

Sylvan Lake - Sixty people will be employed at Sylvan Lake Hovercraft, where they will build two-seater, recreational craft.

Beds to be cut

Red Deer - Hospital administrators recommend closing 36 beds or dropping programs to achieve a $2.7 million budget cutback, according to a memo leaked to their daily paper.

Post office closures

Winfield - A new post office is scheduled to open here at the end of March. However, there's a slim chance Canada Post will close the facility within three years as part of their plan to close 68 rural post offices throughout Alberta.

Folks who think they must always speak the truth overlook another good choice - silence.

First-ever

Tourism Week

In recognition of tourism's important contribution to Canada, Battle River Tourist Association (BRTA) will be strongly urging their member communities to join with the Tourism Industry Association of Canada (TIAC) and communities across Canada to declare May 11-17 the first-ever National Tourism Week.

BRTA President Rolf Jacobsen of Sedgewick and Manager S.E. Clemens of Camrose recently returned from the National TIAC conference held in Quebec City where they attended a workshop on the first National Tourism Week.

Jacobsen said he will be "urging each and every Zone 5 community to join in a salute to the tourism industry and a celebration of National Tourism Week."

A detailed presentation as to how BRTA and each and every community can be involved will be presented at the March 19 BRTA meeting to be held in Edberg.

Witnesses gather

An audience of more than 545 Jehovah's Witnesses and interested persons were at the new assembly hall east of Onoway recently. This included the Witnesses from the Drayton Valley congregation. The two-day program centred on the theme "Joyfully enduring trials gains God's approval." The opening address presented by Tom Munro helped the audience understand that all true Christians will experience trials. He pointed out we should maintain a positive and joyful attitude.

J. Burton of Drayton Valley helped families to joyfully endure trials. He referred to faithful fathers like Abraham and Joshua that stayed with God's word in helping their families through trials. The main address Sunday afternoon, "You can enjoy life in peace now," by Munro, focused on the value Bible principles can have in acquiring and maintaining peace. As was evidenced by the applause and comments of all in attendance, the program was viewed as most valuable for our time.

Mable Byers is 85 years of age.

Oil painter Keeps fingers and mind busy

By Donna Hankedal
Mable Byers, 85, believes in working and helping others as long as she can. She doesn't believe in sitting around waiting to die.

Mable was born in Pentasthne, Ontario where she attended school until she was 11. Mable and her mother then joined her father in Victoria, B.C. where he was employed as a bricklayer. Mable's father helped build the Empress Hotel in Victoria, which is built on a swamp, and also worked on many of the other buildings in old Victoria.

At 17 Mable married a sailor, Russel Marvin, who decided to homestead in Alberta.

Mable arrived in Edmonton in March, and the weather was cold. "I had on Victoria clothes," she remembers. She was wearing a bunch of violets she had picked from their west coast garden. She slipped and fell on ice when stepping off the curb, ruining the only pair of nylon stockings she ever had. To add insult to injury, a cab drove by and splashed her.

"When I got up I was furious and wet. I was a sight to behold," Mable said. "I told my husband I was going home to mother."

"Make up your mind right now. If you're going home to mother get on the train," he replied.

"Well, I'm still here," she said, laughing.

Their homestead was northwest of Edmonton in the Greencourt district. It was a day's train ride from Edmonton to Sangudo where a neighboring homesteader met them with a team of horses. He had brought horseblankets along for Mable to wrap up in, but she was still cold when she arrived at one of the two rooming houses at Greencourt at 1 a.m.

Supper had been kept warm for the couple. "It was nice and warm and I was chilled through," Mable said. "You can imagine what I smelled like from the horse blankets. I got real warm, fell asleep and fell off my chair. The room was full of men and I was so embarrassed I could have gone home to mother then, too," she said.

The following day they travelled by sled to their neighbor's place where they stayed in his shack until they could build.

When they moved to their own home they had to cross a river with a horse-drawn wagon. The bank on the far side was very steep. Russel suggested she not sit on the endgate of the wagon.

"But of course I was stubborn and sat there anyway," Mable said. "When the horses lunged up the other side I fell into the water. My hair was floating and I was madder than a wet hen. Those homesteading days! My husband took one look and turned his face. Then all at once we both had to laugh. I got out of there and climbed the bank myself."

From there on a trail had to be cut with an axe. Russel suggested Mabel drive, but the horses made her nervous so she chose to cut the three-mile trail instead. "It was a pretty winding trail," she recalls.

At the homestead they had no furniture to begin with, and only one side of the roof was on their house. "So for me, coming from Victoria was a real big adventure."

That night after going to bed on the home-made bunk, they heard a loud commotion. They looked up to see a mother bear and her cubs who had climbed the scaffolding and were peering over the wall at them. Russel banged the pail and the bears left.

Mable remembers cooking her first meal on the homestead on an oven rack over an open fire. Her first canning was done in used tin cans. One year she canned 150 quarts of Saskatoon berries.

When Russel died several years later Mable and their four daughters moved in with her parents, who also had a homestead nearby.

Mable met and married another homesteader from the same area. They had two daughters. She was widowed five years later.

She then married Percy Byers. Between them they had 13 children. They spent most of their married life at the Shangri La Lodge in Drayton Valley. Mable continued to live there since Percy's death, a total of 14 years.

She enjoys crafts, playing in the lodge band and took up oil painting five years ago. "I was 50 years old. You've got to keep your mind and fingers busy. You don't say you can't," she emphasized.

All of her paintings to date have been sold and is working on another one. "I'm getting pretty shaky now, but I find sometimes when you shake, you shake in the right direction," she says.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Reeve and Members of Council of the County of Parkland No. 31:

We have examined the consolidated balance sheet of the County of Parkland No. 31 as at December 31, 1986 and the consolidated statements of operating surplus, equity in fixed assets and capital financing and the statements of revenue and expenditure of the General and the School Operating Funds for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the County as at December 31, 1986 and the results of its operations and the changes in its capital financing for the year then ended in accordance with the disclosed basis of accounting described in Note 1 applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Breton holds annual talent show

The sixth annual Breton student talent show was held Feb. 21.

More than 30 students entertained a full house. As the hall was filling, the Breton Community Band presented a short program with the hopes of attracting new members.

Once the show began the audience was entertained by students ranging in age from five to the late teens. Elvin Strand introduced each act which included vocals accompanied by guitar, piano or recorded background; step dancing; piano solos; accordion solos and duets.

After the show a draw was made for three $50 scholarships. Kerston Erickson of Buck Creek, Lisa Hubscher of Warburg and Carol Kvarnberg of Thorby were the lucky winners.

To complete the evening a family dance was held with music provided by Strand's 18-member band from the Winfield high school and other local musicians.

By Cpl. Grant Glistner

Section 49 of the Motor Transport Act stipulates "no person may operate a public vehicle on a highway when the weight being borne by an axle or an axle group of the public vehicle is in excess of the maximum weight specified in the regulations."

It happens every spring. As the road bed thaws out the pavement develops a very weakened condition. With very little support from the saturated soil beneath them, they are extremely susceptible to damage from heavy axles.

This pavement, oiled roads and some gravel roads must be protected in the spring by having road bans placed on them. Very weak oiled roads may require protection throughout most of the summer.

Legal axle loads are 100 per cent axle loading. When road bans are required they are expressed as a percentage of legal axle loading such as 90, 75 and 50 per cent. A 90 per cent road ban means that the weight of the axle, including both the weight of the truck and its load, cannot exceed 90 per cent of the weight of the axle of 100 per cent loading. An example, using a 90 per cent road ban, means that the weight of a single axle with 10-inch dual tires cannot exceed 90 per cent of 9,100 kgs or 8,190 kgs (18,065 lbs.).

As road bans go into effect, restricted county roads will be posted with signs showing the required reduction to meet the legal loading restrictions. In addition, road bans reports for the County of Parkland may be heard on CFCW (790) radio on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, or more information may be obtained by contacting the County Police at 642-4619.

Alberta Safety Council

Bicycle season safety tips...

The Alberta Safety Council wants to ensure the upcoming bicycle season is a safe and happy one for all cyclists by asking bicycle enthusiasts of all ages to adhere to the following safety tips:

Start with a bike that is the proper size. If the rider can stand up above the horizontal crossbar with both feet on the ground or if the saddle is at hip level, the bike is the right size.

Inspect the bike at the beginning of the season and regularly thereafter to make sure good working order is maintained. Check tires, wheel spokes, chains, lights and bells for signs of wear and tear. Most importantly, keep the bike well-oiled, tighten any loose nuts and bolts and always check the braking ability before taking the bike onto the street.

When the child becomes the proud owner of a bicycle, traffic education is a must. The council advises that children should not be allowed to ride on roadways until they have mastered all aspects of bicycle riding. Children can receive instruction on riding skills and traffic safety in the Alberta Safety Council's Pedal Pushers course which are available from local sponsors in communities throughout the province.

Community groups who wish to become involved in programs of traffic safety education for young cyclists this spring should contact the Alberta Safety Council for more information.

Chamber looks for new tourist booth in town

The chamber has stepped up their search for a location for their tourist booth.

Tourist committee chairman Rod Schultz, Natalie Gibson and Greg Fedor are looking at a number of possible sites. The trio is also looking at drawings for a new booth.

Sturdi Wood will donate the material and labor for a new booth and Samalta Engineering have provided drawings for a new booth. Schultz is looking for some feedback from the community on the booth, and hopes other businesses in town will contribute to its construction.
